

Outreach + Social Media Volunteer Role

Role Purpose: To support community outreach and promotion of the Kinning Park Complex 30th anniversary celebration

Reports to: KPC Events & Volunteer Coordinator

Location: Kinning Park Complex, 43 Cornwall Street, Glasgow, G41 1BA

The KPC 30th Anniversary Project

30 years ago our building was threatened with closure by the council until a group of young women and mothers stood up and demanded it be put into community hands. They occupied the building 24/7 for 55 days straight, leading to a victorious community buyout. This project will celebrate this incredible piece of Glaswegian activist history through honouring it with 55 days of action, events, heritage, and celebration in our building from the 3rd of May until the 27th of June 2026.

Who we are looking for:

- Someone passionate about community history and/or events
- Someone interested in creating social media, website, and promotional content
- Someone willing to work and communicate with different people
- Someone who can volunteer at least two days a month between now and July and can attend 2 x induction/training sessions over late March and April

It would be helpful if:

- You have experience creating social media content and/or experience with Canva
- You are comfortable or willing to try writing blogs
- You are interested in or knowledgeable about community work happening in Kinning Park and Glasgow

Tasks

- Learn about KPC's 30th anniversary project and be part of our celebrations

- Help create and schedule social media content highlighting upcoming events in the 55 day celebration
- Join the Events + Volunteer Coordinator at relevant community groups or organisations across Glasgow to share the project and events
- Help to poster and flyer the local area
- Write blogs for our website highlighting the project (optional)

What we offer:

- Training in using social media and Canva (delivered by KPC)
- Meaningful connections with community organisations in Glasgow and opportunity to develop community outreach skills
- Opportunity to develop writing and research skills (if you would like)
- The opportunity to be part of a team of volunteers and contribute to the success of our 30th project
- Travel costs (please discuss with us)

How to apply for this volunteer role:

Please send an email to hello@kinningparkcomplex.org or complete the form that can be found on our website (<https://www.kinningparkcomplex.org/volunteer>) before Monday 23rd March at 12 NOON to let us know you are interested.

You can also drop in to Kinning Park Complex, 43 Cornwall St, G41 1BA to share your interest with the team.

If you write into us please include a telephone number so we can call you to discuss.

Other Information:

Kinning Park Complex is a community-owned space in the Southside of Glasgow. We have spaces for private events, community activities and we offer a diverse programme of free and low-cost events, classes and activities for all ages.